A five-member committee at Southern is promoting to combine into one campaign all requests of standard charities including the Carbondale Community Chest, the March of Dimes, the Red Cross campaign, the Heart Fund, student religious groups, and other recognized charitable organizations.

The group recommends setting up a Campus Chest committee of three faculty members, three students, and three non-academic employees who will estimate the amount needed for the year, announce the goal, solicit funds, and distribute them according to specifications made by donors.

The committee members making the proposal are: Clark Davis, acting dean of men; William Poore, director of personnel; Raymond Day, director of the Extension division; Guy Trump, business administration department; Horton "Tally" Speech department; and Betty Greenleaf, supervisor of student activities.

'South Pacific' Tickets Available

Tickets to the production "South Pacific" are now available in the Student Union.

Dr. Elizabeth Greenleaf, Office of Student Affairs, announced today that the first 43 students on this reservation list to see this play may pick up their tickets today.

Reservations were taken recently for students who wished to go to be chartered bus to see the play in St. Louis. There were 57 students who asked to be placed on the reservation list; however, only 43 tickets were made available earlier this week.

Dr. Greenleaf indicated that more tickets might be secured for the rest of the students, but that this did not seem too likely, in view of the show's popularity.

man, David McIntosh, Dean Henry J. Rehn, and Paul Hunsinger. Students in the College of Vocations and Professions may receive counseling from the members of the new advisement staff by making an appointment in the Advisement Center.

New Student Week was the key-note topic at Tuesday's Student Council meeting. Miss Betty Greenleaf was present to explain the Office of Student Affairs' plan for New Student Week. With the proposed plans, the Office of Student Affairs hopes to make the freshman feel more at home at Southern and take more advantage of the work they hope to get at least 100 volunteer student leaders to serve during the 1953 New Student Week.

Dr. Alexander's request was presented for appropriations to five students to attend a conference on Far Eastern Affairs at Princeton College. Registration fee for each student will be $10. A motion was made and passed that the Council appropriate $25 to this group.

Barbara Van Buren presented Dr. Penick's request that the Council select the Honors Day speaker. Following discussion and suggestions it was decided to refer selection of the speaker back to the committee for Honors Day.

By-laws on elections were read and after appropriate changes were passed.

Members present at this Tuesday, April 14 meeting were Jerry Teer, Wilma Beadle, Carolyn Bernhard, Lou Bowan, Joan Davis, Louis Hoover, Jan Evans, Ed Darling, Mary Myers, Andy Maure, Jerry McIntosh, Barbara Van Buren, and Lewis Wilson.

OLD MAIN lies near the center of Southern's campus. It has many departmental offices and classrooms in it. Its towers have long been a landmark to students and townspeople. The building appears in the expansion of campus.

You and the University

(Editor's Note: Under this heading, official announcements from administrative offices of the University with regard to registration, probation, and other routine student relations will be published. S.U.U. officials desire that each student assume responsibility for informing himself on all notices which may appear here.)

Honor lists for students to be accorded scholastic honors on the Honor Day program, May 21, are posted on the bulletin board in the central hall in Altygeld Hall. Such lists include all freshmen and sophomores with a 4.5 average or above; all juniors and seniors with a 4.25 average or above.

Every student who believes he is eligible to be included in such listings is asked to check the lists by Friday, April 24, so that any error or omission may be corrected. Any such discrepancy should be reported to the Registrar's Office.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Plunked The Finger-Nail Test

"LISTEN, BIRD-BRAIN, don't get sour, but I cooed never love you," said Sheedy's little chickadee. "Your hair's really for the birds! Better remember the one cardinal rule for social success to you want to be so also even. 1. Hop to a solid goose counter. 2. Pick up a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil, America's Favorite Hair Tonic, Contains Lanolin, Non-alcohol. Grooms the hair. Relieves dandruff. Removes goose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test. 3. Use it daily and people will love you." Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil for himself and a diamond ring for his sweetheart. Better buy a bottle or tube today. Or ask for it at your barber's. If you don't you're re-cooked!

OPTOMETRY IN THREE YEARS, IF YOU HAVE SIXTY L.A. CREDITS

In three college years, you can prepare for the attractive profession of optometry, if you have a minimum of sixty required Liberal Arts credits.

There is a shortage of optometrists in many States. Eighty per cent of the Nation's military demand upon the Doctor of Optometry and his professional skill in conserving vision.

The optometrist possesses the dignity of being a professional man. He renders a service essential to the health and well-being of his community. Substantial financial rewards are obtainable almost from the beginning of his practice. Optometry is especially attractive to women.

The U. S. Department of Defense and Selective Service grant optometry students the same consideration as awarded medical students.

Chicago College of Optometry, nationally accredited, is located in the heart of the world's greatest center for teaching in the health care. It is famous for its eye clinic, a building program in progress. Dormitory accommodations, apartments and other facilities are available on a large campus.

Although the tennis squad trimmed the pants off Rolla, 6-1, Coach Jim Wilkinson feels reasonably sure that his own knockers are going to have a rough time of it in their next three matches.

The court crew travels to Illinois Normal on April 18 and to Washington on April 22, before entertaining Bradley on April 25. Normal has dominated the conference for the last four years, and they have three freshmen back from last year's team. Washington is one of the best teams in the midwest, while Bradley is rated near the top.

Short Shots On Diz Dean

By Dan Primas
The pride and joy of Jimmy Wilson, who was on the receiving end of Diz Dean's few shots, was some silk shirt. One day he found one missing, and a few days later, another one of the expensive shirts was gone.

Wilson searched high and low for the missing shirts, and finally he caught the great Dean wearing one of them. Wilson blew his top, and Dean had a good argument for stripping the shirts. He said that all he ever had was cotton shirts, and since he was a great pitcher, he deserved to have some silk shirts.

The exasperated Wilson said, "I've got one more silk shirt in my room. So you better go on up there and take that one, too. Nothing too good for a great pitcher like you."

The very next morning Dean went up and got the shirt.

Some baseball players are superstitious; occasionally a whole team is. So no one thought it too unusual when the Philadelphia Phillies adopted a white rabbit for a good luck charm, back in the '30's when Diz Dean pitched for the St. Louis Cards.

Diz and the Cards came into Philadelphia for a three-game series, and Dean was scheduled to pitch the first game. Just before the game got underway, Diz went over to the Phillies' dugout and petted the white rabbit. He won the game easily. The next time the Cards played the Phillies, at Diz Dean's home, he also won. He also petted the rabbit again and won himself another ballgame.

Unfortunately, the rabbit died. The Phillies gave it a proper burial, and in its graveyard they placed this epitaph: "Here Diz Dean's luck lies buried."

LaStarza Fights Exhibition Bouts

(AP) Roland LaStarza, champion for a September title shot with the Ricky Mancino-Jeremy Joe Walcott winner, will make a few exhibition appearances while awaiting the result of the once-postponed May 15 heavyweight championship fight at Chicago.

Jimmy DeAngelo, LaStarza's manager, announced the Bronx fighter will box five two-minute rounds with Bill Richen of Milwaukee on April 23, also at Huntington, W. Va. He also will box exhibition at Cincinnati on May 5.

So Wilkinson's fears are not unfounded.

In the season's opener against Rolla on April 10, SIU showed marked improvement over last year's team that barely eked out a victory over the Miners. Yet Rolla had their whole team back from last season, with the exception of one man. And St. Louis U., which has proven so difficult in the past to beat, was behind in games on April 11 before the match was halted by rain. Yes, the team has improved.

So far, six men have been seen in action for the Salukis: Charles Pionfi, Ernie Flea, Gene Hittle, Bill Fly, Bob McClure, and Bruce Lape. A minor operation has sidelined McClure for a while; he may be out for a week or more.

Thompson and Rippelmeyer have a victory each, beating Arkansas State 5-2 and Southeast Louisiana 8-4 respectively.

This afternoon's double header is the first home game this season. The Salukis have a 6-2 record so far this spring winning four and losing two on their spring training road trip to the South, and taking two from Arkansas State. A doubleheader at Central Michigan at Mt. Pleasant was rained out last weekend.

Pigskin Predictions

By Jim Kahn
A big season Friday afternoon will wind up the spring football season for 30 of Bill O'Brien's Salukis. The very high hopes for the year 20 days. O'Brien and Franz have been showing Saluki ballplayers how it will be next fall. And, from all appearances, the gridiron have mastered an unbelievable amount of football knowledge—especially for spring ball. And they look tough.

The usual connotation of spring football has it as a limbering-up period, a brief period during which men loosen up their muscles, add distance to their conditioning, and sharpen up their passing.

This past spring season, however, has been different. Southern's football players were tackling, and charging after the first day of practice. And, except for a few bright and spry, they seem to have finished in great shape.

As Mr. O'Brien would say, "Actually, I'm more than pleased with our men this spring. They surprised me, in fact. We had a very successful spring session, and I know we've accomplished a lot."

During the first two weeks of practice, much of the time was spent on running plays, timing, blocking, and tackling. But for the past 10 days, O'Brien has been scrimmaging his men just as much as possible every night. Pleats of causticness preceded each session, and after that, it was the real McCoy.

Practice ran from 3 to 5 p. m., and the last hour was open scrimmaging. During this time, O'Brien added 5 or 6 new plays to go with those of last fall. Thus, he will have a big jump when he suits his team next fall. Provided he has the same 30 men in uniform next fall, he'll be able to go right into scrimmage sessions, and start adding polish after the first week.

This is what the freshman has in mind. If he can have 30 veterans ready to go in the fall, along with several promising freshmen, he should be able to field his kind of team.

It's always hard to get "nines" out of Mr. O'Brien. He thinks of his club as a single unit, and individuals merely make up this unit—they do not stand out as individuals. He coaches a team, singular.

But, after observing a few scrimmages now and then, these are several individuals who stand out. Bill O'Brien's backfield, for instance, should be a good one. In Jack Schneider and Eddie Johnson, he has two running backs who can really score. Both men play sophomores next fall. Both played

Racial Discrimination In Deep South Baseball

Racial prejudice struck out in the Deep South again recently. The Cotton States Baseball League kicked out its first Springs club because the team insisted on using two Negro pitchers.

Shortly after the unexpected decision, officials of the Hot Springs club said they will protest to the president of the Association of Minor League Baseballs. George M. Trautman.

Trautman declined comment on the squabble until he had received further information.

The squabble was over Jim and Leander Ferguson of Florence, S. C., Negroes, never before played in the league.

The Hot Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce sent a telegram to League President Al Haraway who is responsible for the decision. The telegram reminded him that the J. C. had begged his request to take over the club in 1951 to keep the league from becoming defunct.

"Now, two years later," the Jaycees added, "the arbitrary, unjust, un-democratic, un-American and un-Christian action of the Cotton States League has shocked and outraged us."

BASEBALL IMMORTAL DIES AT AGE OF 83

(AP) Charles A. "Kid" Nichols, one of baseball's all-time greats, died recently. The 83-year-old Nichols, whose sports career spanned two generations, became ill a year ago with a neck ailment.

As a right-handed pitcher, Nichols was on the mound for the Boston Nationals for 11 years, beginning in 1890. He was respected by batters for his speed, his curve and his control. He pitched 366 major league victories, including 50 shutouts. His top salary with the club was $3,000.

His best mark was in 1892 when he won 35 games and lost only 16. He completed his major league career in 1905 when he played with both the St. Louis Cardinals and the Philadelphia Nationals.

Jerry West Is To Be Southern's Shortstop

Southern's varsity shortstop, Jerry West, came here back in the fall of 1950 from a rather illustrious high school diamond career that started in 1947.

Jerry, who is a better than average shortstop, has not always played this position. He started on the baseball road as a catcher in '47 with the Belleville High School team. While playing he caught one of Belleville's best pitchers, Darrell Thompson who is now on the Southern baseball roster. The next season Jerry moved to his present position, hit 300, and along with ace hurler Thompson led Belleville to the state championship.

During the summer of '48 Jerry played with the Belleville American Legion team that finished third nationally (17,000 entrants). In 1949 Jerry had another great season at short, and Belleville won another state championship. Jerry's not the reason Belleville won the state, but he was a factor in their good hitting, good-fielding shortstop.

During the summer of '48 Jerry played some more American Legion ball. It was during this time, Jerry decided to come to Southern, and the following fall he became one of the Martin men.

Jerry lettered his first season as a member of the Southern baseball squad, and the following season he continued to prove his worth by playing great ball, and hitting in the clutch.

It seems that Jerry just doesn't believe in statistics, especially those that say shortstops are weak hitters. He consistently hits 300 or better. He slugged out a .315, per. last season and he'll be out to better that mark this year.

Jerry, who is a junior here at Southern, has one more season as a Saluki baseballer, and you can be sure that he'll be doing his best to make it better than any previous season.

Eagles often attack fishing spears, making them drop fish they have caught and then seizing the food; but sometimes a group of spears will attack an eagle and drive it out of the neighborhood.
